January/February
(Closing: Nov 15; On Sale: Jan 2)

1968: A SPECIAL ISSUE

HISTORY
• Ted Conover talks to sanitation workers in Memphis who were there the day MLK was killed
• Photo essays look at Vietnam today, the Beatles ashram in India and the RFK school in Los Angeles on the site of the old Ambassador hotel
• Shaun Raviv writes about William Calley and the My Lai massacre
• Roxane Gay looks the 1968 Miss America protest and what it says about the intersection of feminism and civil rights
• Andrew Chaikin looks at the backstory behind an iconic photograph taken from the Apollo 8 spacecraft

March
(Closing: Jan 10; On Sale: Feb 27)

ARTS & CULTURE
• Matt Shaer looks at a major new initiative to track down artworks stolen by the Nazis in WWII

SCIENCE
• Richard Grant looks the latest research on how trees communicate with each other

TRAVEL
• Novelist Jane Smiley follows in the footsteps of artist Grant Wood through his native Iowa
• Mary Roach looks at artifacts rescued from Hurricane Harvey
• Richard Conniff travels to northern China to find rare fossils from the Cretaceous period

April
(Closing: Feb 7; On Sale: Mar 27)

THE FUTURE ISSUE

SCIENCE
• The Future of Health: how immunotherapy is revolutionizing cancer treatment
• The Future of Energy: America's Most Energy Self-Sufficient Town and what it can teach us about the future of sustainability
• Focus on space: From space tourism to remote nuclear plants, a look at how entrepreneurs and scientists plan to generate energy in space

TRAVEL
• A look at Rwanda's quest to become the most technologically sophisticated, healthiest and most innovative nation in Africa
May
(Closing: Mar 7; On Sale: Apr 24)

TRAVEL
Franz Lidz travels to England’s Lake District to look at a battle brewing between environmentalists and farmers
Tony Perrottet profiles Eusebio Leal, the Cuban behind the revival of Old Havana
Mark Jenkins travels to Wrangell St. Elias national park in southeastern Alaska—our largest wilderness area

June
(Closing: Apr 11; On Sale: May 29)

TRAVEL
Paul Theroux profiles Garrett McNamara, one of the world’s greatest surfers, and the 100-foot wave he conquered

HISTORY
Ted Genoways looks at the wars between two Mexican tequila families

July/August
(Closing: May 16; On Sale: July 3)

September
(Closing: July 11; On Sale: Aug 28)

SECRETS OF AMERICAN HISTORY
A new look at Harriet Tubman’s early trips to Maryland and the black anti-slavery movement
Ben Yagoda looks at the complicated relationship between Sigmund Freud and his co-author, William C. Bullitt

October
(Closing: Aug 8; On Sale: Sept 25)

November
(Closing: Sept 12; On Sale: Oct 30)

December
(Closing: Oct 10; On Sale: Nov 27)
AMERICAN INGENUITY AWARDS